● “TAMA BASIC POLICY FOR PROMOTING MULTICULTURAL COEXISTENCE” HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED !

Cultural coexistence means that people of different nationalities and ethnic backgrounds live together as part of the same local community. They acknowledge and respect each other’s cultural differences while working to build equal and inclusive relationships. Over the past ten years, the number of foreign residents in Tama City has increased by about 1,500, reaching 3,669 people (2.48 % of the population) by 2025. Nearly 80% of these residents are under the age of 40. To create a truly “multicultural society”, it is essential for both Japanese and foreign residents to live together as equal members of the community.

☆Primary activities: ・Cooperation and collaboration with local civic groups／・Spreading and raising awareness of easy Japanese／・Development of a disaster support system Others

◇Inquiries: Culture & Lifelong Learning Promotion Section ☎042-338-6882 ID:1017094

● TAMA CITY INTERNATIONAL CENTER (TIC) HAS BEEN INCORPORATED ~HOW ABOUT JOINING US?

This year marks the 33rd anniversary of its establishment. To ensure more stable and sustainable operations, the organization will be restructured as the “General Incorporated Association Tama City International Center” beginning in June. In partnership with Tama City, TIC promotes international exchange, provides support for foreign residents, and fosters multicultural coexistence. We are inviting you to participate in TIC’s initiatives as a meaningful way to engage in multicultural activities from the very start.
